

EST. ↑ 1982

EVERGREEN CLUB

50+ homestay travel

NEWSLETTER // DEC 2018 // ISSUE 1

Happy Holidays!

Let's get together!

Here's an idea... If you've got some spare time this holiday season, reach out to other Evergreen Club members in your area and invite them to spend part of the Christmas holiday with you. Especially if you're flying solo these days -- go ahead! Reach out. You can be the one to be proactive and inclusive. It's a great way to make friends! You and your fellow Evergreen members already have a major thing in common... the love of travel, hospitality, and a desire to make friends. So go ahead! You'll never know how this could really brighten someone's spirits at this time of year. And don't forget to keep your camera out to capture the memories! Yep, there will be another photo contest in 2019 that focuses on hosts & guests having a great time together. Let's start making those memories today during this holiday season.

HOLIDAY HOURS

The office will be open part-time from Dec 24th -Jan 1st. Please leave a message if you call. Members needing help with renewals should contact the office before Dec 24th if possible.

Continuous Membership Rewards

A big thank you to our long-time members, who understand that the strength of the club stems from the willingness to host.

Scroll for Continuous
Membership Rewards List

BIG NEWS: BLOG RELEASE

Introducing the Evergreen Blog!

There have been many member requests for an Evergreen Blog: a place to access past Newsletters, view photos, read articles, and learn more about the club & great travel options for 50+ / seniors. On the Blog, you'll also find stories featuring Evergreen members who are having great hosting and traveling adventures, as well as our Great Travelers series. So (if all goes according to plan!) we hope to release the Blog to you to kick off the new year at the start of 2019! You'll be able to access it right from the navigation bar on the Home page of evergreenclub.com. So stay tuned! Can't wait to share our new Blog with you!

